

OLD ACADEMY GIRLS IN REUNION THURSDAY

Twenty-eight Members Are Present—Taken on Tour
of Franklin

The Old Academy Girls held the first reunion they have had for two years in Franklin, Thursday. The group met at the public library at 11 o'clock and held a short business meeting. They then went in a body to Trout's Cafeteria where luncheon was served at one o'clock.

The Old Academy Boys, headed by J. B. Payne, president of the organization, met the Girls after luncheon and took them for an automobile tour of the city. The Masonic Home, Franklin college and other points of interest were visited. The trip was much enjoyed, especially by the out-of-town members. It also gave the "boys" and "girls" a chance to renew old acquaintances and recall the days when they studied "readin', 'ritin' an' 'rithmetic" together. After the drive the girls went to the city park for a social session.

Although death has taken its toll since the last meeting of the Academy Girls, twenty-eight were present at the reunion. They were Mrs. Effie Strickler Stokes, Mrs. Lyda Burnett Grayson, Mrs. Belle Crowe Auman, Miss Ella Larkin, Mrs. Dora Deitch Hoover, Mrs. Ella Huber Cummings, all of Indianapolis; Mrs. Rene McGuffin Woodcock, Danville, Ill.; Mrs. Mattie McGlellan West, Greenwood, Mrs. Marcella Brewer Wycoff, of Greenwood, and daughter, Mrs. Lee Stuck of Franklin; Mrs. Missouri Watson, of Martinsville; and Mrs. Kate Bogart, Mrs. Jack Duncan, Mrs. Angie Voris, Miss Serilda Burton, Mrs. Sadie Alexander Green, Mrs. Carrie Willard Forsythe, Mrs. Mattie Johnson, Mrs. Mollie Mathis, Mrs. Emma Featherngill, Miss Ella Mathis, Mrs. Bettie Riley, Mrs. Ida Buckingham, Mrs. Sallie Carmine, Miss Belle Jones, Mrs. Kiltie Smith, Mrs. Sarah Sibert, Mrs. Henry Strickler and Miss Sadie Larkin and Mrs. Rachel Jackson Turpin, of Franklin; and Mrs. Laura Williams Walters, of Indianapolis. Miss Cora Halfaker, niece of Mrs. Kate Bogart, and Miss Ida Margaret Jolly, granddaughter of Mrs. Ida Buckingham, were guests.
